

“WE HAVE THE POWER TO MAKE CHANGE”

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH'S 43RD ANNUAL MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. MEMORIAL SERVICE

JANUARY 10, 2015 AT 4PM

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF BEDFORD, 155 CONCORD ROAD.

The diverse Christian fellowship of First Baptist Church of Bedford, MA is holding its 43rd Martin Luther King Jr. Service. on Sunday afternoon, January 10th at 4pm. This year's national theme is “We Have the Power to Make Change”.

Jazz and Gospel musician, Rev. Dr. Geoffrey Dana Hicks will speak and share his music. Dr. Hicks was is the minister of music at Tremont Temple Baptist Church in Boston. Rev. Dr. Scott Arnold, pastor of First Baptist Church of Bedford will also share in word and music. Testimonies and inspiration will be shared by Sheila Ghazarian, Al Chisholm, Margaret Henderson, Irving Smith, Ozell and Mentha Johnson, Marion Bryan and others.

This will be a time of people vocalizing the power of God's Spirit inspiring a dream for unity with diversity, for racial understanding and appreciation. The vision of Dr. King was a vision of God's perfect grace and truth, a vision that is both Christian and broader.

Come for a time of inspiration, worship, reflection and prayer. Let's seek peace and pursue it. First Baptist Church is a racially diverse family of faith that has been actively seeking to model respect and esteem of all people.
