

Ellen Perry to speak about her career in the military at AAUW's November 5 meeting

A Woman Veteran – one woman's journey into a military career and afterwards

Join us in the meeting room at the Bedford Library on November 5 at 7 pm for an opportunity to learn from a woman veteran.

We welcome Ellen Perry who had a career in the military during the time of the Vietnam War.

Ellen earned her M.S. in Management and Organizational Development at the Naval Post-Graduate School. She managed the Center for Education at VHB, Vanasse, Hangen, Brustlin, Inc., where she deployed training programs in areas such as leadership and management skills.

Currently she works as a career advisor at Employment & Training Resources, Framingham, a Massachusetts One-Stop Career Center, one of America's Job Centers.

AAUW is a nationwide, nonpartisan organization that uses its influential network to disseminate information, raise awareness, and effect change on women's issues. AAUW is the largest non-government provider of scholarships for women. The Bedford-Lexington Branch has been serving local communities for over 50 years. Monthly meetings are free and open to the public, with refreshments being served.
