

Join us at the First Parish Bedford Church in Room 202 (The Overlook Room) at 12:45PM on Sunday, March 8th to gather for the viewing of "Call Me Malcolm".

This film is a 90-minute documentary about a transgender seminary student and his struggle with faith, love, and gender identity (www.callmemalcolm.com).

"In society today the changes people go through when they are transgender isn't a common topic so we view them more as a spectacle rather than a human being making a transformation this film gave me a greater understanding of the hurtles one must overcome when searching for their identity in attempt to become their authentic self. Malcolm, tries to make sense of his sexuality and struggles to do so while remaining close to his faith in God. He sets out to travel across America and connect with old that knew him before he became Malcolm and new friends that have undergone similar transformations. This documentary had me crying, laughing, and provided me with a deeper understanding of the inner transformation that one must also experience while facing an outer reformation." Zaire, M.

The film will start at 12:45PM on Sunday. Following the viewing will be an open discussion. This event is hosted by the Welcoming Congregation Committee, First Parish Bedford Church. Any questions, please contact co-chairs Craig Jackson (cejacksonma@yahoo.com) or Terri Soothoo (terrisoothoo@verizon.net).
