

Chris Crass

Sunday, May 24

10:00 AM

Sponsored by the Social Responsibility Council at First Parish, social justice activist Chris Crass will draw on themes from his book “Towards Collective Liberation” in a special 40-minute talk on anti-racism, social justice leadership, and creating healthy culture for powerful movements.

Chris is a dynamic speaker who inspires people to “believe in our collective ability to make large scale change, guided by our vision and grounded in grassroots movements.”

All are welcome!
Childcare provided.
