

Eggplants on Parade:
How to Create a Beautiful and Productive Vegetable Garden

Bedford Garden Club Meeting
Saturday, April 25, 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 Noon – the Public is Invited

First Church of Christ Congregational
25 The Great Rd., Bedford, Upper Fellowship Hall

Anita Dafontea is an avid gardener and cook specializing in unique varieties of vegetables. She will share slides of her own garden in Newtown, CT and show us how to create a vegetable garden that is both beautiful and productive.

Anita will discuss which varieties of tomatoes and peppers to grow for certain dishes, how to build a rich organic soil, and what tools you will need. She will show us how to add flowers for color and beauty, plus share her tips on how she saves her garden from wildlife. Anita spent 20 years working for gardening magazines and is currently sales manager for Coast of Maine Organic Products. Public is invited.
