

FREE

Hoarding Prevention Training

When: March 10, 2015 from 12:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Where: Bedford Town Hall Auditorium

Are possessions taking over the home of someone you know and love?

Does clutter create a safety concern in a resident's home?

Do you know someone who is embarrassed or ashamed to have people in their home?

If you can answer YES to any of these questions and want to help, SIGN UP for our hands-on training sponsored by Metropolitan Boston Housing Partnership and Bedford Hoarding Task Force.

LEARN how to intervene and what local and area resources might be available.

When: March 10, 2015 from 12:30 (lunch) to 4:00 p.m.

Where: Bedford Town Hall Auditorium

SIGN UP by RSVPing to youthandfamily@bedfordma.gov

Training geared for clergy, parish leadership, senior volunteers, community leaders, police, housing, or anyone interested in helping a resident or neighbor

There is no charge for the training but space is limited to 25 participants so registration is required.

Questions? Call Sue Baldauf 781-275-7727 or Heidi Porter 781-275-6507

Training and community education has been made possible by the Lee A. Mannillo grant awarded by MassHousing to the Bedford Hoarding Task Force