Temple Isaiah, a reform synagogue located in Lexington, MA, will be hosting an Open House event to welcome prospective new members.

We welcome members in all the surrounding towns to come meet the clergy and Temple educators. Learn about worship opportunities, the Temple community, the thriving school and education and the Temple's many Social Action programs.

The High Holidays start September 15, 2015. New members are encouraged to join early to take advantage of all holiday events offered by Temple Isaiah.

Childcare will be available at the open house.
