

The Conversation:
A Revolutionary Plan for
End-of-Life Care

Dr. Angelo Volandes

September 30 at 2 pm

Dr. Angelo Volandes, author of the new book The Conversation: A Revolutionary Plan for End-of-Life Care will speak at First Parish in Bedford, Unitarian Universalist, at 75 Great Road, at 2 pm on Wednesday, September 30,

The program is co-sponsored by Carleton-Willard Village and the Bedford Interfaith Clergy Association.

Dr. Volandes is a physician, writer, lecturer and patients' rights advocate. He practices internal medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, and is on the faculty at Harvard Medical School. He is Co-Founder and President of Advance Care Planning (ACP) Decisions, a non-profit foundation implementing systems and technologies to improve the quality of care delivered to patients in the health care system. He was educated at Harvard, Yale and the University of Pennsylvania.

Copies of his book will be available for purchase at a discounted rate of $16 (cash or check only).