

This Old House Contest Piece

The Little Garden That Could
by Keira

Throughout all of the places
And all of the lands
In a little school
Full of little hands

There lay a garden
Cozy and cute
Full of vegetables
seeds, and juicy fruits

It was unlike others unique in a way
took in the spirit of a bright beautiful day

Its appearance
is one for applause
When you see it
You will see no flaws

It gives you a smile
One like no other Spread from ear to ear Unites one another

Lane School Garden should be on TV
For this explains it Don't you see

Choose me!
My personality shines
I put a lot of time and effort into this to make it rhyme!!!!
