Bedford's own Jeff Hoyland and his daughter Sienna will be Relay for Life's opening speakers at 4pm on Saturday. Jeff will share his amazing journey as a survivor while Sienna, a member of our Event Leadership Team, will help share his message as Jeff's cancer has affected his speech.

There is a new Halloween Lap which will take place on Saturday at 5pm, where local children can come down and take part in our Fight Back lap and trick or treat at the Relay team campsites.

Our high school honorary survivor is chair of the 2016 Relay for Life. Jack Tomsicek who was diagnosed in the beginning of March, will speak at the Fight Back Ceremony at 5:45pm on Saturday.

Lisa Marino Hafer will be sharing her story at our Luminaria Ceremony (9pm on Sat).

Funds raised benefit the American Cancer Society.
