

OPEN HOUSE AT TEMPLE SHALOM EMETH ON JUNE 12

June 12 will be a busy day at Temple Shalom Emeth on Lexington Street in Burlington.

They will be hosting an indoor yard sale, a baby/toddler play date, and an open house.

The yard sale, which runs from 9 a.m. to noon, will feature small furniture, books, CDs, bikes, baby items, toys, and knick knacks.

The baby & toddler play date begins at 4 p.m. in the nursery school playground. Music will be provided by Ben Silver, the temple's cantorial soloist, and a representative of the nursery school will be available to answer questions about the temple's pre-Hebrew classes for three and four year-olds.

The open house runs from 5 to 7 p.m., and includes a dairy dinner and the First Ever Scooper Bowl Ice Cream Tasting Event.

Guests will be able to taste delicious treats from local ice cream shops including Bedford Farms, Cold Stone Creamery, Kimball's, Orchard Hill, and Schoolhouse. Tasters will vote for their favorite ice cream, and proceeds from the tasting will be donated to the Jewish Family Table.

In describing the open house, Rabbi Susan Abramson said, "It will be a great time to see longtime friends and meet new ones before the summer begins."

Temple Shalom Emeth serves families in several local communities, including Bedford, Billerica, Burlington, Lexington, Reading, Wilmington, and Woburn.
