

EXPANDING THE CIRCLE: RESTORATIVE JUSTICE AT A PIVOTAL TIME

PARTY AND FUNDRAISER
SEPTEMBER 29

Expanding the Circle: Restorative Justice at a Pivotal Time, a party and fundraiser celebrating Communities for Restorative Justice's first 16 years of partnership with police departments in 17 local communities, will be held from 6 to 9 pm on Thursday, September 29, at the Scottish Rite Masonic Museum & Library, 33 Marrett Road in Lexington.

The evening's guest speaker will be former US District Court Judge Nancy Gertner, Senior Lecturer on Law, Harvard University. The event will also feature live music, a silent auction, and a delicious light supper provided by local restaurants.

Tickets for the party are $75 to $250. Please RSVP by September 15 at <http://c4rj-expanding-the-circle.eventbrite.com> or by calling 978-318-3464.

About Communities for Restorative Justice: C4RJ currently partners with the police departments in Acton, Arlington, Bedford, Boxborough, Burlington, Cambridge, Carlisle, Concord, Groton, Hudson, Lexington, Lincoln, Littleton, Maynard, Stow, Sudbury, and Wellesley and the Middlesex District Attorney's Office's Juvenile Diversion Program. The nonprofit organization was founded in 2000 by former Concord Chief of Police Len Wetherbee and community residents. To learn more, visit www.c4rj.com
