Biographies

KATRINA FAULSTICH (Artistic Director) is the Choral and Theater Director at Bedford High School, where she is also the Drama Club Advisor. This is Katrina's fifth year directing the BHS Musical. She earned her BM in Music Education from UNH and is currently working on her Master's in Music Education at the Hartt School at the University of Hartford. In her "spare" time, she music-directs shows at summer camps, performs with choruses and theater companies, and creates things. She would like to thank Jess, Erik, Betsy, Evan, and Seda for working incredibly hard on this show; the cast and crew for their dedication; and everyone involved for rolling with her wild ideas and vision! "We cannot know what will occur. Just make our journey worth the taking."

EVAN GRUNWALD (Music Director/Conductor) received his degree in Music Education from Berklee College of Music where he principled in Guitar and Music Theory, and is in his eighth year teaching Grades 6-12 at BHS and JGMS. Children of Eden represents the seventh consecutive musical for which he has been the Music Director and Conductor. He considers himself very lucky to be able to collaborate with such talented and eager students, supportive parents, and truly wonderful colleagues.

ERIK SMALLENBERGER (Technical Director) is running stage and tech crew for the fifth year for Bedford High School. A 2008 BHS alumnus, he stage-managed Little Shop of Horrors his senior year. While on breaks from Springfield College, he assisted Bryan Nash with running build crew. In college, Erik ran a two-man crew for a 14-set show. Erik currently works as a firefighter paramedic for the Bedford Fire Department and runs his own woodworking business.

JESSICA MARTIN (Choreographer) is thrilled to be back for her seventh year at BHS for Children of Eden. Jessica is a third grade teacher and Zumba® Fitness instructor. Previous musical theater experience includes BHS productions of Grease, Once on This Island, Footloose!, Anything Goes, Shrek, the Musical, Cinderella, and Junior SummerStock productions. She would like to thank the production team for their talents and efforts, and the cast for their hard work and perseverance at rehearsals.

BETSY GOETSCHUIS (Costume Designer) received her BA in International Relations from Wellesley College and her MEd in Social Studies Education from Harvard University. She currently works as world history teacher at BHS, but is thrilled to be moonlighting as the costume designer for Children of Eden. Past costuming credits include Cinderella, Shrek, Anything Goes and Footloose. She must give special thanks to her brother, Andrew, who lent his time and creativity to the costuming effort. She would also like to thank the actors for their adaptability and good humor, and the production team for their energy and support.

KRISTYN BROPHY (Lighting Designer) is excited to be designing at BHS for her fourth season. Kristyn received her BA in Design & Technical Theatre from Franklin Pierce University and is currently working in Marketing Technology and Graphic Design at Sullivan & Worcester LLP. Past lighting designs include: Peter and the Starcatcher, Cinderella, Almost Maine, Anything Goes, Shrek the Musical, Footloose!, Hamlet, Sweeney Todd, and original works with playwright Robert Lawson. She would like to thank the cast, crew, and Ms. Faulstich for awarding her the opportunity to design yet another wonderful show at BHS.

KATHERINE FULLER (Vocal Coach) is the General Music and the 5th Grade Chorus Director at Lane Elementary School. She is currently pursuing her masters in vocal pedagogy at the Boston Conservatory at Berklee and is an avid performer in the Boston area, specializing in opera and new musical theatre works. This is her second year working on the BHS musical. Congratulations to the incredibly hard working cast and crew, and especially to Katrina, who is an inspiration to the Bedford Performing Arts Department and pours her heart and soul into every production. Toitotit!
