

THE BEDFORD CITIZEN

IRELAND, PART I: BEGINNING IN THE NORTH

BY ANDREA CLEGHORN

SEPTEMBER 12, 2017

Norwegian Airlines descends into Belfast airport on inaugural flight from Providence

Getting in out of the rain at Glenarm Castle, ancestral home of the McDonnell family

Butler welcomes guests in the drawing room at Glenarm Castle, Ballymena

Walled garden at Ballycally Castle in the village of the same name on the Antrim Coast

Moose casts a watchful Londonderry Arms Hotel, entrance, Carnlough, Antrim Coast

Londonderry Arms Hotel in Carnlough on the Antrim Coast

The coastline near Ballintoy, Glens of Antrim

Garvin from McCrossan Tours plucks a symbolic oak leaf, the symbol of County Londonderry

View of Derry -- and dove painting - from city wall

Reconstructed shops from the 1700s make up Craft Village in Derry

The oldest continuously operating pub on Shipquay Street in Derry, dating to 1684

Peace Park in Derry overlooking the River Foyle

Titanic museum in Belfast features every aspect of building the “unsinkable” ship

The Nomadic a restored tender to the Titanic at the site of the museum

Women's Voice Matter mural Shankill Road area of West Belfast

Mural memorializing the Easter Rising, McQuillan Street and Falls Road, Belfast

Message for peace at Commercial Court, Belfast

Historic Duke of York pub, Belfast

Identify the faces: Actor Liam Neeson from Northern Ireland in the middle, real people in the foreground, Commercial Court, Belfast

3D Raleigh Bicycle Sign, Cathedral Quarter, Belfast

Bibs for tiny people at St. George's Market, Belfast